Noble Fool Theatricals hosts 'Night at the Theatre'

When Youth Outlook announced that its next fundraising event would be spent with the quirkiest and nerdiest spelling titans in Putnam County, the response among their youth was great, a recent news release said.

"The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee," produced by Noble Fool Theatricals at Pheasant Run Resort in St. Charles welcomes the local organization at 8 p.m. May 7 for its "Night at the Theatre" fundraiser.

Youth Outlook is the only agency in the DuPage, Kane and DeKalb counties of Illinois dedicated solely to serving lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or questioning youth, the release said.

It provides wellness education on a variety of topics, leadership development and social space. It also conducts community education programs to change the social atmosphere that imperils LGBTQ youth in the first place.

"We are a grass roots agency with big dreams," said Michelle Dodd, Youth Outlook fundraising chairwoman, in the release. "And being able to pay minimal cost for the theater tickets and then turn around and sell them as a fundraiser is huge for us.

"This event allows us to invite our youth, create an atmosphere where they can feel safe, bring a date or just feel accepted – and Noble Fool is helping us achieve that."

In this Tony Award-winning new musical comedy, six of Putnam County's quirkiest spellers want are out to win the spelling bee. The spellers, played by adults, fiercely battle it out for the title only to learn that winning isn't everything and losing doesn't necessarily make you a loser.

"We're happy to offer this program to fellow nonprofit organizations like Youth Outlook," said John Gawlik, Noble Fool artistic director, in the release. "And while they enjoy a great night at Pheasant Run Resort, we enjoy the chance to perform in front of a full house of new patrons."

Tickets to the Youth Outlook "Night at the Theatre" benefit performance of "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee" at Pheasant Run Resort can be purchased at www.youth-outlook.org or by calling 815-517-8031.

Regular performances of "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee" run through June 13. Show times are at 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, and 2 p.m. Sundays. The show is rated PG-13 due to mature situations and language.

Pheasant Run Resort is located at 4051 E. Main St., St. Charles. For regular tickets, call the Pheasant Run box office at 630-584-6342, or visit www.ticketmaster.com. More information on Noble Fool Theatricals can be found at www.noblefool.org.
