A Spine-Chilling Tale

the Woman in Black

A London lawyer hires an actor to help recount a story to family and friends that has long troubled him since he attended the funeral of an elderly recluse. During the reenactment, you'll be gripping your seats with a chill down your spine as you experience the horror and terror of this haunting tale. We just hope you'll live to retell the tale of one of the longest-running suspense thrillers in history. Rating: PG-13

"The most brilliantly effective spine chiller you will ever encounter...if you haven't seen this show yet you are missing a treat" –Daily Telegraph
